SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 19, 1874

Governor Br. wa, of Tennessee, has written a letter to the President, in which he complains that the United States Marshals are arresting parties charged with offences that will be punished under the State laws, and asked, upon the ground that peace will be more certainly preserved and the rights of all protected, that these arrests may cease, and those already in custody turned over to the local courts for trial. He promises to spare no effort to enforce the laws and protect all the citizens of the State, without reference to race, color or previous condition of servitude.

The bolting Radicals of South Carolina have declared against the Radical nomince for Governor (Chamberlain,) and at a meeting of negroes he was declared to have aided in "ruinning the people and disgracing the State." Judge John D. Green is spoken of as the candidate of the bolters, and it is said that if Owing to the disorganization of the police force he should be nominated the Democrats would in New Orleans, resulting from the recent conplace no candidate in the field, but would give fliet of arms, the Commandant of the Metrohim their votes. It is possible, however, that the split has been magnified, and will be of little importance in the campaign. Alas for South | the peace and order of the city during the com-Carolina!

Our soulhwestern Virginia exchanges uniformly report an immense corn crop, and prediet that the building of additional corn cribs will be necessary. The Page Courier says:-"Our farmers have already commenced to gather their corn crop, and notwithstanding the unfavorable season in the early part of the summer, we learn that nearly an average crop is made. Many have also commenced seeding, and we learn that a large quantity will be SOWD."

A remarkable instance of the gratification of a morbid spirit at a comparatively heavy cost is the action of Mr. Anderson, a citizen of Toronto, whose two sons were among a party drowned in the Niagara river by the capsizing of a yacht. He purchased the vessel and then, perhaps, with the idea of destroying forever what was to him a hateful object, burned it to the

Mr. C. declares himself in full accord with the Administration, and, if elected, will turn over all his salary, except what is needed for actual expenses, to the District School Fund.

FAIRFAX COUNTY ITEMS-|From the Fairfax News. |-Mr. John Newcom, while passing along the road with his team, near Bancroft' mill, two miles below Annandale, on Tuesday night, was struck a blow on the head with a stone, it is supposed, by some unknown person, that knocked him out of his wagon and out of his senses. THE LOUISIANA TROUBLES.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 18.-There are no new developments this morning. General Brooke occupies the executive office. Major Wiltz had a consultation with him relative to re-essablish ing the municipal courts, and on other matters pertaining to the police department, preserva on at the Custom House between Governor Mc-Enery and his friends, and Kellogg and others, looking to a compromise, but legal obstructions present themselves at almost every step. Military occuption until Congress disposes of the question would doubtless be cheerfully acquiesced in by both parties.

A dispatch to Governor McEnery from Bayou Sara reports that that town was attacked last night by negroes. The attack was repulsed. General Emory has ordered troops to that point. NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 18.-The following ex plains itself:
